Top 5 Resolutions

Don't know what your Resolutions for 2017 are? Well here are the top 5, to give you some ideas for this year!

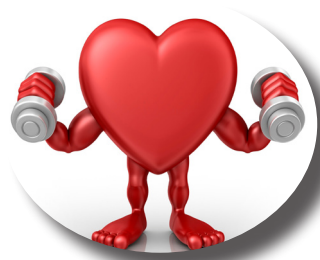

3 - Learn something new. Not Surprising really! Learning something new is great! You can learn a new language, a sport or hobby.

1 - To do more exercise and eat healthier. Does this one surprise you? Well, January 1st is when the gyms have the most people in the whole year.

4 - Save Money. We are ALL guilty for spending our money on silly things, so people try to not do that and save their money.

2 - To Read more. Quite surprising, right! Yes, many people feel they spend too much time on their phones, so they push themselves to read more.

5 - Be nicer, kinder and more patient. Everyone wants to be treated well, so I'm to be that person who makes peoples day.
