

Are you interested in doing an Apprenticeship in the future?

The websites below advertise apprenticeship vacancies and can help you find out more about apprenticeships

www.gov.uk/apply-apprenticeship

Find and apply for apprenticeships in England. Register and open an account so you can be alerted to new vacancies.

www.careersworld.co.uk

Careers World can support those individuals of all ages looking to study or begin a career in their chosen sector.

www.careermap.co.uk

Just enter your postcode to find school leaver apprenticeship jobs in your area.

www.careerpilot.org.uk/info/apprenticeships

Find out more about apprenticeships.

www.allaboutschoolleavers.co.uk

You'll find everything from current apprenticeships and school leaver programme opportunities, to the latest school leaver job news.

www.getmyfirstjob.co.uk/Apprenticeships/AboutApprenticeships.aspx

Ready to get out into the world, start working and earning? Discover the future that's waiting for you, build valuable skills and get on the path to success.

www.paidtolearn.co.uk

Paid to Learn is a dedicated website for apprenticeship vacancies and careers advice for young people aged 16-18 in the UK, provided by Positive.

www.apprenticeships.qa.com

QA offers apprenticeships in IT, software, digital marketing, project management and technical sales.

www.charitybiyp.azurewebsites.net/

Believe in Young People (BiYP) is a charity which both prepares and places young people into the world of work.

By using Yell.com you can generate a list of employers to approach to find out if they are recruiting apprentices – www.yell.com

Universal Job match (Jobcentre Plus) – www.gov.uk/jobsearch - Job and training vacancies

The Recruitment and Employment Federation – www.rec.co.uk – Recruitment Agencies